GARFIELD

HIGH

FOREWORD

True success is the educating and adapting of one's mind and soul in such a manner that he may be able to enjoy life and appreciate its highest conceptions, that he may partake of the sweetness of nature, and in his daily walks and labors be able to teach and enlighten the minds of others, thus making life a pleasure to his fellow-man as well as to himself.

DEDICATION

To a World Traveler, MISS PEARL RAMSEY, in appreciation of her many years of devotion to Garfield High School students.

FACULTY LUNCHEON

The faculty luncheon, on the closing day of school, has become traditional. The Spring 1956 luncheon was held at Yanko's restaurant.

Much gaiety presides at this affair, as another school year is completed, as everyone is looking forward to the summer months when they may devote their time to travel, study, recreation, work, or relaxation.

SENIOR SHOW

THREE FOR TONIGHT

THE VALIANT was well performed by Ronald Palmer, Edward Bender, Bob Ammon, Donnalee Kremer, and James Houchen.

The hit of the evening was short musical comedy AMAZONS ON BROADWAY, with an all girl cast. Joan Hurs and Mary Lent as the lead

A scene from THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST by Oscar Wilde; one of the short acts in the senior class show THREE FOR TONIGHT. This particular act was presented before community organizations and school assemblies.

Garfield Claims Title

Winterized' Prexies Top Cats, 16-13 Game Excellent Despite Cold

By DON PLATH

Synonyms for the word "admirable" are: Wonderful . . . marvelous . . . excellent.

Garfield High School won the City Series football championship on the snow-covered Rubber Bowl grid Thursday morning by defeating Central, 16-13, a game that deserves to be scribed as admirable . . . wonderful . . . marvelous . . . excellent.

One must admire the players of both teams for outstanding performances in freezing 25-degree weather on a slippery-like field.

IT WAS wonderful watching Garfield's Sterling Shephard y on his feet for 15 and 50-yard touchdown runs.

It was marvelous watching quarterback Jim Koesis and Rossi handle the ball well without error despite blue-the-cold hands. Central's Koesis attempted four passes and completed one. Rossi tried three, completed none and had one intercepted. One marvels at they could even throw the ball.

in view of the weather. It

VISITING PERSONALITIES

Mr. Quaker, a representative of the Quaker Oats Company, talked to our assembly last Spring.

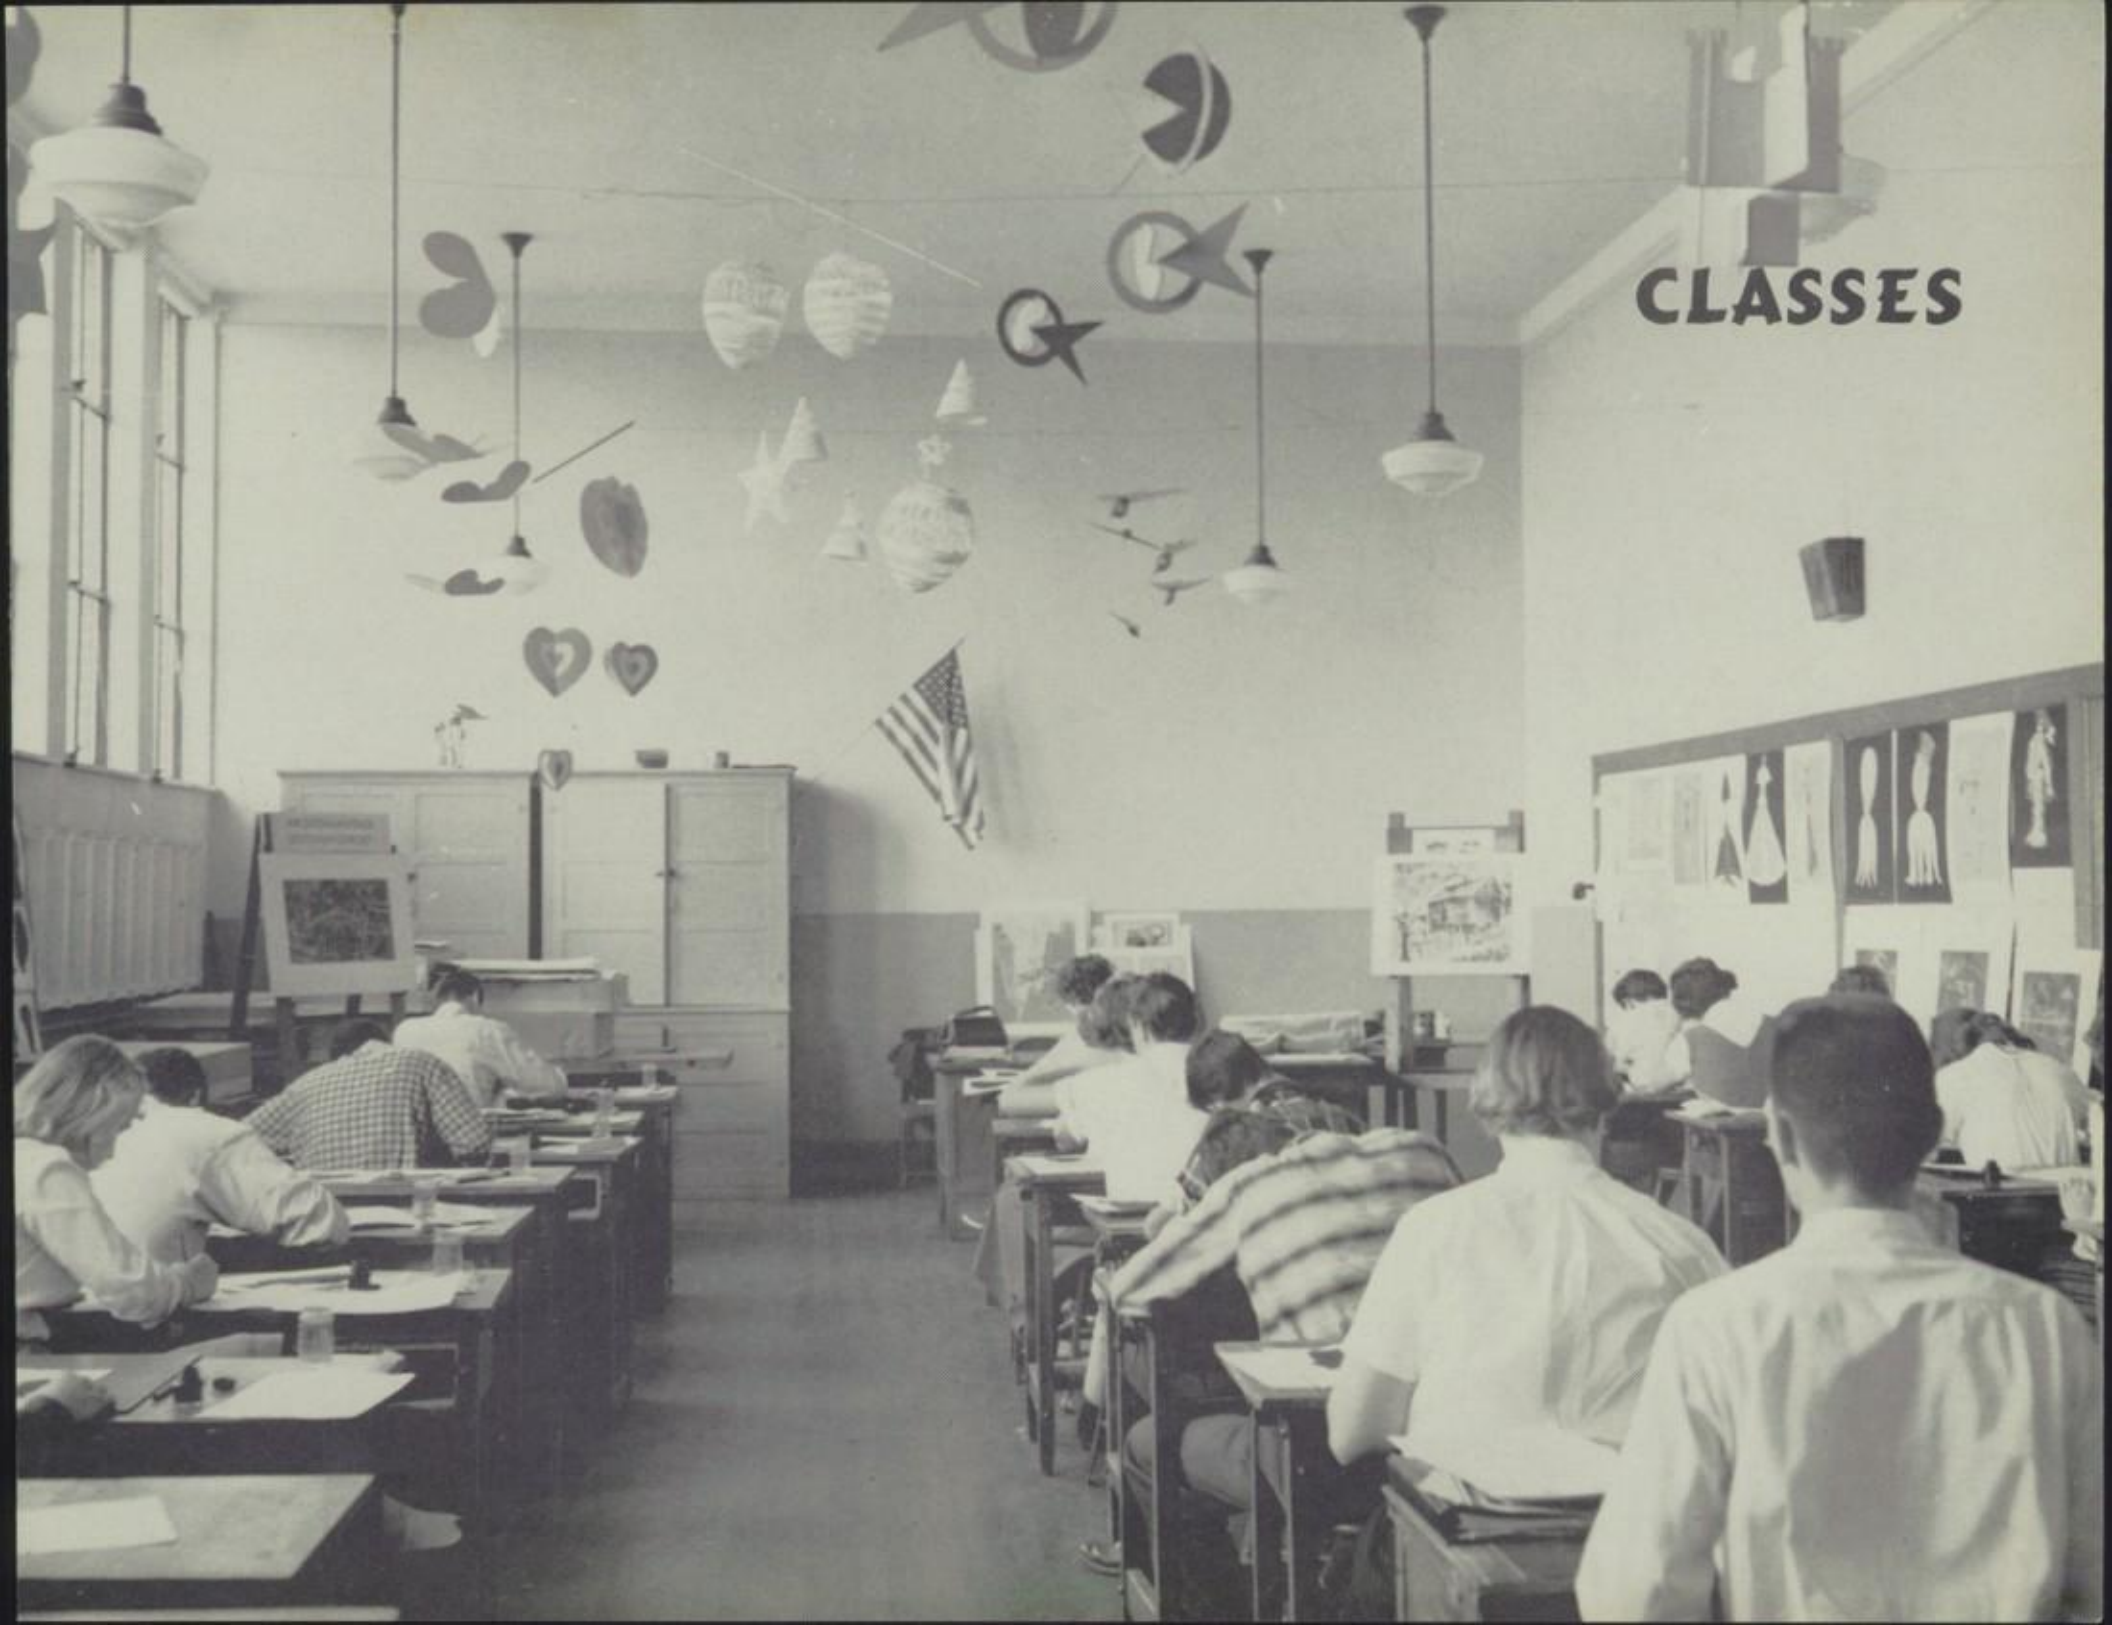

Mr. Jesse Owens, who still holds the World's record for the broad jump, was also a speaker at our Spring assembly.

On October 11 Secretary of State Ted W. Brown presented a citation to Lindsay Humphrey, Jr. for his services as Secretary of State of Buckeye Boys' State. The citation reads: "for extraordinary interest in the processes of our government; for great assistance in stimulating youth participation in matters vital to citizenship; for cooperation with the Secretary of State in the efforts made to keep Ohio voters advised as to their rights and responsibilities in exercising their voting franchise."

CLASSES

THE SCHOOL

MACHINE AGE

Students at Garfield have the privilege of working and learning on over forty different types of machines. A few machines shown on these two pages are: wood lathe, band saw, rip saw, planer, steel lathe, ditto, ediphone, typewriter, mimeoscope, job press, hand press, paper stitcher, paper cutter, and proof press.

Students use a variety of equipment in classes. Nurse Huffman of the Red Cross demonstrates in the Health Classes. Two art students work with the ceramic kiln.

Students learn by using and studying many plaster models in the Biology classes, and the popular turn-table in the library has a wealth of interesting informative books.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Many forms of recreational activity are put into practice in the physical education department for girls under the direction of our new gymnasium instructor, Mrs. Ina Brown.

BODY BEAUTIFUL

The Body Building Classes develop beautiful bodies under the careful guidance of Mr. Dienoff.
